Summary

I'm Deepak Mishra, a B.Tech CSE (Data Science) student at LNCTE, Bhopal. Along with building my expertise in Data Science, Artificial Intelligence, and Web Development (MERN), I'm also passionate about entrepreneurship and innovation.

Currently, I'm working on developing skills in Python, Machine Learning, and Full Stack Web Development while exploring ways to apply technology to real-world problems. My long-term vision is to build a startup that leverages Data and AI to create impactful solutions and generate value at scale.

I believe in continuous learning, creative problem-solving, and turning ideas into action.
